

DEC 17 1962

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-

FOIAb3b

CPYRIGHT

Donovan Off To See Castro

NEW YORK, Dec. 16 (UPI)

Attorney James B. Donovan, who has been negotiating with the Castro regime for the release of 1113 prisoners taken in the Bay of Pigs invasion, left here tonight by private plane for Havana to complete arrangements for their release, the weekly newspaper Town and Village reported in a copyrighted story. Donovan is counsel to the Cuban Families Committee.